

LOCAL MATTER.

Col. Weldy will accept our thanks for valuable and interesting public documents.

Representative Weldy spent Sunday among his constituents in Logan.

Mr. L. S. Bort is on the sick list, and at present confined to his home.

Mr. J. R. Calvert, one of the prominent citizens of the Rock House country, made us a pleasant visit yesterday.

Dr. Campbell has been appointed examining Pension Surgeon for this county by the authorities at Washington.

Col. Churchill of Zanesville, director of the Penitentiary, will accept our thanks for a copy of the Report of Penitentiary of the past year.

Mr. Jacob Keller is confined to home by a severe attack of rheumatism. Mr. L. Kleinschmidt attends to the business of the grocery.

Mr. Fred Blum, one of the prominent citizens of northern Marion, was in the city on last Saturday, and made a pleasant call at the Sentinel.

Messrs. Woodruff and Trimmer are in Columbus this week attending the meeting of the State Convention of County Commissioners.

President Pond is in Columbus this week attending the meeting of State Board of Agriculture. Also as delegate to the Swine Breeders Association.

A donation party was given last week to Mr. Con Breslin, and the good people of Logan contributed with the generosity and liberality which characterizes our town.

Mr. Geo. W. Mohler, of Gore, intends removing to Kansas. Mr. M. is a good citizen and his many friends in Hocking will regret his departure from among us.

Mrs. Keller, of Bragg town, was delighted last week by an acceptable donation from thoughtful and generous friends, for which kind remembrance she desires to return her thanks.

On last Friday Mr. Tom Bradlock fell off his dray, breaking his arm and bruising himself severely. He is improving and will soon be out again.

McMaugal has put a coffee roaster in his grocery and will dish up fresh roasted coffee at reasonable prices. Don't forget to give him a call and try his NONE SUCH baking powder. It is better and cheaper than the ROYAL, also fresh roasted pea nuts.

Miss Maggie Case has been tendered the position of collector of canal tolls at this place, and if she will accept there can be no opposition from any source. She is a good girl, competent and deserving, and her appointment will certainly meet the approval of everybody.

Mr. Yank McCarthy has leased the rear room and the basement of the McCarthy building, and will occupy the rooms in the spring. The basement will be used as a restaurant, the rear ground floor room as a sales room. The location is a very desirable one and Yank will make it a popular headquarters.

Mr. Will Davey, of Cleveland, and family, are visiting friends and relatives in Logan this week. "Billy," as the boys call him, was a popular candidate for Sergeant-at-Arms of the House, and but for a mistake in the count, was elected. He is foreman of the Cleveland Daily Star, and stands high in the esteem of the Democrats and Laboring men of the Forest City.

Mr. Maynard Pond returned last week from a visit to the South. He reports finding the people of Atlanta, Selma, Chattanooga, and the various places he visited, shivering from the cold wave that gave us all such a chill. Mr. Pond will accept our thanks for copies of interesting papers published in the cities he visited. The papers are all Democratic and satisfied with the election of Senator Payne.

W. N. England has been in Columbus the past week familiarizing himself with the duties of his office as Deputy State Auditor. He was sworn into office on last Monday. We bespeak for him a pleasant service and feel assured that his official work will do credit to the State and to the Democratic party.

He requests that when the brethren from Hocking come to Columbus, to call and see him. The latch-string of welcome will always be out, and he will be glad to have the opportunity of making pleasant the visits of all friends who call to see him.

NOT GUILTY.

The trial of L. D. Vickers for the killing of McVeigh, at McArthur, closed last Friday. The Jury returned a verdict of not guilty. The defense was a plea of self-defense, and the testimony showed conclusively that Mr. Vickers was attacked, that he was only to save himself from brutal punishment that he resorted to the knife, and that in using it he did only what any man assaulted and beaten, and driven to the wall, had a right to do.

The Walnut St. House. Almost every week some of our citizens visit Cincinnati. It is important to them to know a good Hotel to stop at. We present this week the Card of the Walnut Street House. This Hotel is a good place for Hocking county visitors at the Queen City to stop at. It affords the best of accommodations. It guarantees security to all its guests. The prices are very reasonable.

Those of our readers who visit Cincinnati and take counsel from this notice, will save more than the price of a year's subscription and at the same time have a good hotel accommodations as Cincinnati can afford.

Mr. Fred Sammein, formerly of the Sentinel, has taken the position of Telegraph Editor of the Baltimore Herald, one of the leading papers of the Monumental City. Mr. S. is an accomplished newspaper man, and we bespeak for the patrons of his paper, a gentleman on the staff who will not disappoint public expectation in the O. to Man and the newspaper graduates of the Sentinel office.

The Delinquent Tax Sale on Tuesday was not very largely attended. Very few opposition bids were made—the first bidder generally getting the property. The Coal & Purmace Co. lands, several thousand dollars delinquent, were bid off by J. B. Butin, agent for the Co.

Mr. Thress, the popular Landlord of the Main St. House, has rented the west room of the French & Slescher building, now occupied by Yank McCarthy, and will occupy it in the spring with a dry goods store.

Mr. Thress is a clever, reliable business man and will receive a full share of the public patronage. The rent paid is $400 per annum.

The Blank Verse of Sleight Riding.

Our Post Master, Dr. A. D. D. Sleight, is a well-known sleight rider. He has written a book on sleight riding, and it is a very interesting and valuable work. It is a book that every sleight rider should have.

Mr. John McBride has been tendered the position of Superintendent of our canal. The selection of Mr. McBride is the best that could be made. He has been connected with the Public Works all his life and is recognized by those acquainted with the canal service as being the most practical and thorough man in the Valley. Some of the best and most important work was done under his advice and direction. John McBride is honest, he is competent, he is a Democrat. Hocking county possesses the greatest mileage of canal, and possessing as we do a man of McBride's capacity, there is a justice and propriety in giving to Hocking this important and responsible position, and we are assured that the selection will be made unanimous by all the counties along the line.

Miss Lou Bowen, after a years absence, visiting friends in Colorado, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Illinois, returned home to Logan on last Tuesday, and was heartily welcomed by her many friends and relatives here, and congratulated upon her good health and her pleasant visit.

Among the presents she brought is an Inkstand, presented to her brother, Capt. Bowen, made of twenty different specimens of valuable rocks, including various kinds of rock in which gold, silver and copper appear. The Inkstand is not only a curiosity and a handsome work of art, but is a geological study, interesting and instructive.

The Captain will keep the Inkstand in the Auditor's office for a time, and the students of Geology may learn much, as well as enjoy seeing an article of taste and beauty.

In the caucus vote for United States Senator, Col. Weldy voted for Pendleton and Senator C. S. Welsh voted for Payne.

THE MOTHERWELLS.

The Motherwells have achieved another conquest, and place another feather in the coronet of Logan as a point of profitable business industry.

Last week the contract for the Iron work of the Toledo Asylum amounting to about ten thousand dollars, was awarded to the Motherwells, as presenting the best bid among all the competitors, for this important contract.

Our citizens scarcely realize the importance of this great industry in our midst. From this last contract alone, ten thousand dollars will come to Logan and be paid to Logan mechanics, and thus disbursed among Logan business men.

The work of this establishment is not taking money from one pocket and putting it in the other. Not changing checks from one man of Logan to the other in which no actual gain is made, but they reach out and bring to us work and money that otherwise would never come among us. They create a business—they make money for Logan. May they continue to prosper.

Mr. John Miser, our grocer, is doing a lively business in buying and selling game. He also pays the highest price for butter, eggs and other produce.

Mr. John Hansucker died last Wednesday and was buried on Friday. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Edwards.

The measles have made their appearance in this vicinity again. Several families' are reported having them.

Mr. Eli Busby is reported on the sick list this week, but is on the mend at the present writing.

Mr. Peter Miser will erect a blacksmith shop at the crossroads soon; the contract for the building to be let out in a few days.

Our school is progressing well under the management of Mr. William Friester. He is a good teacher and deserves credit.

L. J. G. PAUL SMITH, The Modern Proteus.

"He hath borne himself beyond the promise of his age, doing in the figure of a lamb, the feats of a lion; he hath, indeed, bettered expectation."—SHAKESPEARE.

One of the wonders of the age—New York Independent. An electionist of intense power, and an impersonator without a rival—Binghamton Republican.

No electionist so completely charming has preceded him, Albany Argus.

The greatest genius in the way of impersonation and election ever seen here—Utica Morning Herald.

G. Paul Smith's personations surpass anything of the kind we know of.—New York Dramatic News.

FIRST CLASS ENTERTAINMENTS.

The Citizens of Logan Organize an Association. Everybody enjoys good public entertainments. Everybody who can spare the means will attend an entertainment that merits public patronage. Oftentimes it happens that shows appear in our Opera House, which disappoint and disgust the audience. The Management is not responsible, because he can not know what a new show is until after it has exhibited. So in order to guard the public against disappointment, and present a series of entertainments to which every man can go and take his wife and children, assured of a pleasant as well as instructive evening enjoyment, the Logan Lecture Association has been formed.

The Association consists of the following gentlemen: A. D. Houston, L. A. Culver, Lewis Green, A. H. Brooke, F. S. Pursell, O. W. H. Wright, B. C. Reber, Josie Rochester, C. E. Bowen, T. F. McCarthy, S. Sultzbacher, C. F. Sterritt, M. D. Moore, R. W. Chamberlain, S. G. Bennett, J. H. Dye, F. C. Rochester, Jno. Hansen, J. W. Strentz, Jno. C. James, Wm. P. Price, J. B. Butin, Chas. W. Cable, E. C. deSteiguer, F. F. Rempel.

The members met on Thursday last, and effected an organization as follows: L. A. Culver, President. J. B. Dye, Vice President. C. E. Bowen, Treasurer. A. H. Brooke, Sec'y.

The following Executive Committee was appointed: T. F. McCarthy, M. D. Moore, R. W. Chamberlain, C. F. Sterritt, John Hansen, Dr. Cable, Lewis Green.

Four entertainments are arranged for. The price of season tickets will be $1.00; single tickets 35 cents. No reserved seats. Those coming first have the first choice.

The first entertainments will be given on Friday and Saturday evenings, January 25th & 26th, by the famous Impersonator, G. Paul Smith, and the Forbes Juvenile Orchestra.

Smith is considered the most wonderful personator of character before the public, and his recitations and imitations should be heard and seen by every teacher and advanced pupil of the country.

The Forbes Family of Juvenile Singers are the wonder and admiration of the public wherever they go.

Elsewhere we publish a few of the testimonials from the press, showing how the entertainments are received.

The character of the gentlemen composing the Logan Association, show the enterprise to be a local one, and is a guarantee that all who patronize it will be amply repaid.

A Birthday Surprise. On last Tuesday evening the many friends of Phil Slesher gave him a birthday party.

About one hundred guests assembled at his house and were hospitably entertained by Mrs. Slesher and an able staff of lady friends.

Mr. Slesher was presented with a gold headed cane, the presentation being made by Ol. Wright in his happiest vein.

After supper, the company adjourned to Hartman's Hall, where in tripping the light fantastic toe, the short hours of the evening was happily passed.

Mr. Slesher was 52 years of age, Tuesday, but is still young in spirit, and with his many friends we hope for many more birth days as pleasant as the one just passed.

Picture of Logan. We are glad to learn that nearly one hundred of our citizens have subscribed for one or more copies of the Stereoscopic view of Logan. The picture is a beautiful parlor ornament. It is a useful office chart. It will be profitable as a present to the public offices of other cities. The view is supposed to be taken at a point south of the railroad, and from an elevation of six hundred feet. The buildings fronting south, show up most distinctly, although every building in the town is so distinctly displayed as to be easily identified.

SOME.
